OSHA investigating cause of deadly blast

By Bob Slate
 Staff writer

For the second time in as many years, a deadly fire struck the magnesium floor of Spectralite Consortium Inc. in Venice Thursday morning.

One employee died and three others were seriously injured as a result of the fire at the plant, located at the corner of College Street and Baucum Avenue.

Thomas Rhein, 49, of Waterloo, died at St. John's Mercy Medical Center in Creve Coeur from injuries sustained in the fire. He was pronounced dead just before noon — about four and a half hours after the fire ignited, authorities said.

Three other employees — Allen Simshouser, 51, of Cahokia; Byron Pinkston, 59, of Gillespie; and Charles Green, 35, of Caseyville — were also taken to St. John's Mercy from St. Elizabeth Medical Center in Granite City.

Simshouser was listed in critical condition Friday morning. He sustained burns to more than half of his body.

Pinkston and Green were listed in serious condition. Pinkston was burned on 30 percent of his body and Green nearly 20 percent.

Three other employees were treated at SEMC for less serious injuries.

Management employees at SCI were unavailable for comment or to explain the mishap either Thursday or Friday. A secretary said that many managers were out of town Thursday and were returning Friday. Investigators from the Occupational Safety and Health Administration were on the scene, she said.

The Venice fire department and employees had the fire under control in less than an hour.

The cause of the fire had not been determined as of Friday morning.

SCI processes molten magnesium, a highly volatile element that ignites on contact with water.

The fatal accident is the second at the plant in as many years. In November 1994, Jody Richie was fatally wounded by an explosion. Investigators determined that a pump had

Town petitions may be thrown out

By Bob Slate
 Staff writer

Two women who circulated petitions to place a referendum on the November election ballot in Granite City Township testified under oath Thursday that they obtained some signatures prior to registering to vote.

The women, Misty Hammond and Kristen Willis, told the township electoral board that they registered to vote Aug. 16, two days after they began circulating petitions.

State law requires petition circulators to be registered voters.

The revelation will likely invalidate as many as 586 signatures obtained on petitions filed Aug. 19 by mayoral candidate David Partney to place the following question on the Nov. 5 ballot: "Should township organization be continued in the city of

Granite City?

A "yes" vote would be in favor of continuing township government. A "no" vote would be in favor of eliminating it.

Partney's petitions contained 1,793 signatures. A minimum of 1,793 signatures — 10 percent of the number of registered voters in the township at the conclusion of the last election — are required to place the question on the ballot, according to the state board of elections.

But Chief Deputy Assessor Debbie Gray, an employee of the township, filed an objection to the petitions, asking that the signatures obtained by Hammond and Willis be ruled invalid.

If those signatures are thrown out, the petitions would lack a sufficient number of signatures to be placed on the November ballot.

The township electoral board — Township Supervisor Bernie Hagnauer, Town Clerk Judy Whitaker and Trustee Cassius Skubish — must rule on the objection.

If the signatures are ruled invalid, Partney said, he will appeal the decision to the circuit court.

He said Hagnauer, Whitaker and Skubish all have an interest in keeping the referendum from the ballot: all three receive a pay check from the township.

"You can't expect persons with such a personal stake in an issue to decide in an

Heroin bust: 6 arrested; drugs, cash seized

By Bob Slate
 Staff writer

Six individuals were arrested Thursday evening when police executed a search warrant on an alleged heroin house in Granite City.

Sixteen individual packages, or "buttons," of alleged black tar heroin, more than $1,000 cash, dozens of used capsules and other paraphernalia were confiscated from the house at 1441 Madison Avenue as officers from the Granite City police department, the Metropolitan Enforcement Group of Southwestern Illinois and the Drug Enforcement Administration converged at about 5 p.m.

Charges were pending Friday against the six persons arrested.

Granite City Police Chief Dave Ruebhausen

said the arrests were the culmination of an investigation that was initiated by his department's two-man undercover narcotics unit about three weeks ago in response to complaints from neighbors.

"We knew they were selling heroin out of this house and we were trying to develop a case," Ruebhausen said.

Police initially arrested four individuals

Ruebhausen called "dealers." After the house was secured, potential customers began showing up and police arrested them as well, Ruebhausen said.

He said that a recent concentration of law enforcement in East St. Louis has resulted in drug houses springing up throughout the Metro East.

New drag strip opens Saturday

By Scott Cousins
 Staff writer

It's been a long wait, but on Saturday auto racing enthusiasts will finally get a chance to check out the new drag strip and other improvements at Gateway International Raceway.

The new 4,000-foot drag strip will open that weekend for the Missouri/Illinois Dodge Dealers Monster Mopar Weekend XI.

The event will be Sept. 7-8 at the raceway, located on Illinois 203 in Madison near the Interstate 55/70 exit.

Racers will compete for $13,000 in prize money. The event will also include a custom car show showcasing about 1,000 classic Dodge, Plymouth and Chrysler Corp. cars from as far away as Florida, Texas and Colorado; a swap meet; and a manufacturer's midway.

Formal opening ceremonies for the new drag strip will be at noon Saturday.

"It's been a long time coming, but we're pleased to be up and running on our new drag strip and showcasing a taste of what's in store for motor sports fans in the coming months," said Rod Wolter, general manager at Gateway International.

Hoese faces drug charge

A former Granite City firefighter/paramedic was charged with three felony counts of drug trafficking Wednesday. Agents from the Metropolitan Enforcement Group of Southwestern Illinois found about an ounce of a white powder, alleged cocaine, in his home last week, police sources said. Greg Hoese, of the 1900 block of Fourth Street near Madison, was charged with two counts of unlawful delivery of a controlled substance and one count of unlawful possession of a controlled substance with the intent to deliver. Hoese, who was being held on bond totaling $275,000, resigned from the Granite City fire department two years ago.

Cab driver faces battery charge

A 30-year-old Granite City cab driver was charged Wednesday with allegedly choking a woman with the cord to a window blind early Wednesday morning to keep the woman from leaving his apartment.

The victim, a 34-year-old West Granite resident, told police that she lost consciousness after being choked, and awakened on a bed in the apartment.

John P. Bernheisel, of the 2400 block of Washington Avenue, was charged with aggravated battery and aggravated unlawful restraint in connection with the incident.

Bond on the warrant is $75,000.

According to a police report, the victim met Bernheisel at about 10 p.m. Tuesday night when he gave her a ride to a friend's house in the downtown area in his cab.

Bernheisel returned to the house early Wednesday morning, the victim said.

Bernheisel and the victim then left the house to buy a pack of cigarettes at a nearby convenience store and to go to some marijuana from Bernheisel's apartment, the woman told police.

After purchasing a pack of cigarettes, the two went to the apartment and smoked a marijuana cigarette, the woman said.

As the woman was leaving, Bernheisel allegedly wrapped a cord from a window blind around her neck, choking her until she passed out.

The woman awoke on a mattress in the apartment. Bernheisel told the woman he was sorry. The victim then offered to buy him a pack of cigarettes at a convenience store, but instead called police from a pay telephone, the report states.

Bernheisel told a police officer that he had choked the woman, but that he had told her he was sorry, the report notes.

Nursing home proposed for Nameoki site

By Scott Cousins
Staff writer

A St. Louis developer has approached township and county officials about building a nursing home in a flood-prone area of Nameoki Township.

HSM Development in St. Louis is considering the development of an 80-bed, $4.5 million nursing home called Rosewood Care Center in the area south of Belleville Area College's Granite City Campus. The company also owns nursing homes in Edwardsville, Swansea and Alton.

Company officials could not be reached for comment, but a receptionist said the company has a project in the early stages of development in the Granite City area. Nameoki Township Supervisor Ken Davis said he was approached several months ago by someone seeking his support for the project, which would be located near Word of Life Tabernacle on Maryville Road.

"I kind of enlightened them about the drainage problems and the kind of response they would get from the people," Davis said Tuesday.

Last year plans for a $3.1-million apartment complex on the site fell apart after massive complaints from nearby residents citing long-standing problems with groundwater and flooding. The developers pulled out of the project a day before a planned zoning hearing in March.

Davis said he also told them the property would have to be rezoned through Madison County, and that would not happen unless the company presented an engineering plan to deal with drainage. Without that, he said no project would be approved.

"I don't think it could be done," he said.

"I don't think there should be any more development (in that area) until the drainage problem is solved," he added. Madison County Zoning Administrator Joe Parente said someone came in recently and asked about zoning on that property, but no applications to rezone the property have been filed. Parente said his office has received a number of calls about the development.

Nameoki Township Clerk Helen Hawkins, who lives nearby and has been an outspoken critic of development in the area, said she had heard rumors about the plan.

"We don't like it," she said. "We don't like anything that will compound the problem."

Gambling charge filed against Legion post

Madison County prosecutors have filed a gambling charge against Edwardsville American Legion Post 199 following the arrest of two men who allegedly accepted a payoff inside the club. The charge is a Class A misdemeanor, was filed against the post and not an individual. If convicted of the charge, the operation faces fines of up to $1,000.

Prosecutors filed the charge Thursday following the July 12 arrest of two patrons who reportedly collected a $60 payoff inside the clubhouse. Edwardsville police allegedly observed the payoff while investigating complaints of illegal gambling.

Legion officials have declined to comment on the case.

Prosecutors in July issued subpoenas to Legion officials to participate in a grand jury investigation Aug. 1, but sources said members of the organization voluntarily submitted records of the machines prior to the court date.

Madison County State's Attorney William Haine said the organization was charged because officials could not identify who was directly responsible for the alleged illegal gambling. Haine declined further comment about the case.

Police seized four gambling machines, several hundred dollars in cash and payment records during the July 12 bust. Officials had said the payment records indicated the Legion had the potential to earn several thousand dollars each month with the machines. Edwardsville Mayor Gary Niebur, who also serves as the city's liquor commissioner, will have an opportunity to file a complaint against the Legion based on the misdemeanor charge.

Niebur could not be reached for comment Friday. Niebur had issued warnings to all city taverns and clubhouses in November that action would be taken if gaming machines were used for illegal gambling.

The warnings followed in the wake of a fatal shooting at Vanzo's Taproom in October. The suspect, a bartender, had accepted a payoff from a video poker machine inside the tavern and was asked to leave when a bartender realized she had overpaid him.

Vicki Vanzo-Stassi, the tavern's owner, was fined $3,000 by the city after she pleaded guilty to the violation. The city can impose fines up to $10,000.

Time for a few Late-Summer Tips from the experts at

FRANK'S® NURSERY & CRAFTS

Where Beautiful Things Begin

Here's a little reminder. If you haven't given your lawn a feeding of Frank's Fall Lawn Food, now's the time. It'll only take a few minutes and your lawn will have everything it needs to survive the long winter.

September is a good time to start thinking about craft projects. Frank's stores have plenty of instruction sheets to make all sorts of unique items. And you certainly can't beat the price. The sheets are free.

There's another good reason to start thinking about crafts. Next Sunday's Journal will include something extra special, a 2-page Frank's Craft & Floral Spectacular sale booklet. It's jammed full of bargains you definitely don't want to miss. And it starts next week, so plan accordingly.

But, since it's only September, let's get into some gardening-related stuff. Such as bulb planting. You may have marveled at the beauty of a neighbor's spring flowering bulbs and decided you'd "do the same next year." Well, in that respect, "next year" has arrived, and now's the time to plant 'em.

Bulbs need to establish vigorous root systems before winter sets in, and September planting will provide plenty of time for it. But don't wait too long.

Until the garden soil with peat or another soil conditioner to six inches below the bulbs' recommended planting depths. This procedure loosens soil and improves aeration, drainage and friability. What's that, you ask? Making it easy to crumble.

Place the holes as far apart as they are deep. For a prolonged boost, add a touch of Frank's bone meal or bulb food to each bulb hole, then plant the bulb. For first-time bulb planters and those who haven't done it for some time, the pointed end of the bulb faces up.

The newly planted bulbs should receive about an inch of water a week. Mulching the bulb bed helps prevent moisture loss and frost heaves from damaging the roots during the winter.

And that's about it. Next spring you should have a magnificent color show!

Lawn Time

September's also a great time for lawn renovation, or complete replacement, for that matter. The cooler nights and warm afternoons provide optimum conditions for new lawns.

Before seeding or sodding, remove any thatch buildup and rough up the soil a bit. Use a spreader for seeding instead of tossing it around here and there.

More Planting

Plants should be planted early this month. Rhododendrons need areas offering afternoon shade during the winter. Broadleaf evergreens have a measure of insurance against winter burn if they're planted on the northern side of the house. If north planting isn't practical for some reason, they can be protected with burlap windscreens.

Check the stakes of any newly-planted trees, and adjust as needed. The stakes that may have fit perfectly when the tree was first planted may not be so custom made now that the tree's grown. These should be checked every few weeks throughout the year, even in winter.

unbiased manner," Partney said.

Partney's attorney, Morgan Scroggins, argued that there is no way to determine which signatures were obtained by the two women prior to registering because the petitions are not dated.

Scroggins said that the signatures must be considered valid until they are proven invalid. And because there is no way to tell which signatures were obtained before the women registered, Scroggins said, there is no way to prove them invalid.

Complicating the matter is the fact that the women said they did not read a sworn statement at the bottom of the petitions, stating that they personally witnessed the signatures, before signing them. In fact, the women said, some petitions with their signatures at the bottom contained signatures obtained by other circulators.

While Gray's objection also questioned signatures because they were printed rather than signed and because they contained only initials rather than full signatures, those signatures are considered valid under state law.

Partney said he will not give up his goal of getting the question to the voters. If the referendum fails to make it on the November ballot, he will try again next April, he said.

"I think if everybody looks at the facts and figures, this (referendum) would result in the elimination of township government," Partney said after the hearing. "That's why (township employees) don't want this on the ballot. That's why it takes a township employee to object."

Granite City and its township are coterminous — they share the same geographic and political boundaries. Officials elected to the city council also serve on the township board of trustees.

Partney has said that the township form of government in Granite City is inefficient and is a duplication of service.

es. He said township residents would see lower property tax bills if the township government was eliminated and services were provided by the city or county.

Township Assessor Darlene Laub has said there would be no tax savings because the services will have to be provided by some government entity.

•Heroin

"This guy thought he was going to open up shop in Granite City. But through the cooperation of other agencies, we arrested four dealers and two customers who came by to make a purchase," Ruebhausen said.

Each of the 16 packages confiscated has a street value of $10, he said.

The arrests were the result of the fourth heroin bust in the city in the last two weeks, police said.

"Heroin is more prevalent now than it has been in the recent past," Ruebhausen said.

Storytelling seminar set at SIUE

The Office of Continuing Education at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville will offer a storytelling seminar on Thursday, Sept. 5-6, from 6:30 to 8:30 p.m. in the Peck Building, Room 2414.

The seminar gives participants the opportunity to learn the art of storytelling. This seminar is especially useful for teachers, scout masters, counselors, and religious educators.

Topics to be discussed include: finding your story, research, making it your own, and telling with style.

The fee for the seminar is $48. Instructor Marilyn Kinsella, a storyteller since 1981 and current president of the Riverwind Storyteller Inc., is also a storyteller at the Edwardsville Public Library.

She travels to more than 50 schools, festivals, and workshops each year to tell her story throughout the Midwest.

For more information, call 692-3210.

"It's great to get the first of our venues on line, and it's nice that we are starting off with one of the events that has grown over the years with this facility," he said.

He said the event had its best year ever in 1995, and he expects things to be even better in the future.

"Under the old setup, we couldn't handle more than 1,000 cars," Sievking said. "This will be a bit of an adjustment year for everybody, learning the new layout, but with the new track, we should really go places."

The Mopar show will be followed by the Monster Mustang Gateway Rumble on Sept. 21 and 22, and the United Black Drag Racers Association will hold its fall races at Gateway on Sept. 28 and 29.

The new drag strip is part of a $25 million expansion that will also include a 1.25 mile oval track. Construction on the oval track is slated to begin as soon as the drag strip is finished, and is expected to be completed in June 1997 — three months ahead of schedule.

What do you think Granite City could improve on in the area of recreation for our youth?

By SHIRLEY VALENCIA

Rosa Blackwell Granite City
"A center for our youth with different activities to keep them busy, like gymnastics and other sports, so that the dreams they have for today can somehow be accomplished with a head start."

Paula Hubbard Granite City
"There is a great deal of organized activity for kids aged 6. We need to develop more for adolescents and teens. Maybe a youth center. And, hopefully, grandparents, parents and youth volunteer cooperation. Something to make our youth feel included and needed."

Recycling for a cause

APA will benefit from aluminum can drive

This fall, aluminum can recycling will be the "pet" project of animal lovers everywhere.

The Granite City Association for the Protection of Animals has joined "Paws to Recycle," a nationwide aluminum can recycling program benefitting local animal shelters. The Granite City APA will earn money and free Friskies pet food. The collection period kicks off today and runs through Nov. 30.

"Dogs and cats looking for loving homes are depending on the good people of the bi-state area to bring their used aluminum food and beverage cans to the Granite City APA's shelter," said Kathy Beyer, public relations. "The aluminum cans we recycle will help us earn money to support our shelter's work."

"For every pound of cans we recycle, we'll earn cash for needed operating funds. We're also competing with shelters nationwide to win one of five $3,000 grand prizes, and we need as much community support as possible to help us achieve this goal."

"Paws to Recycle" is an aluminum can recycling program sponsored by the American Humane Association, Friskies PetCare Company and Aluminum Company of America. Participating animal shelters receive promotional kits to help them organize recycling programs, along with free pet food from Friskies.

The five shelters that demonstrate the most community involvement will receive a $3,000 cash award. The Granite City APA will accept aluminum cans at 3000 Old Alton Road in Granite City Monday through Sunday during daylight hours. For more information, call the APA at 931-7030.

Square dance classes offered

The Hoedown Square Dance Club, composed of members from western Madison County, is sponsoring beginner western square dance classes, starting Sept. 10.
Classes are held from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. at the Roundhouse, 633 N. Wood River Ave. in Wood River.
The first lesson is free, and the public is invited to attend, participate or just observe. The instructor is Bo Smith of Glen Carbon. Individuals are encouraged to bring a partner.
There are approximately 40 square dance clubs in the St. Louis area, and the Hoedown Square Club is the oldest and one of the largest in the area, having been founded in 1949.
In addition to fun and fellowship, square dancing offers considerable health and aerobic benefits.
A recent study by Dr. Aaron Blackburn stated that "square dancing combines all the positive aspects of physical activity with none of the negative elements. It is a low-impact activity that helps keep the body in shape. Dancing can burn as many calories as walking, swimming or riding a bicycle. Square dancing is a perfect exercise that can add longevity to a person's life."
Additional information on classes may be obtained by calling 656-8435 or 876-0252.

Tribute To American Workers
When you own furniture sold by Barewood Furniture Gallery, you own a piece of American history. That's because our furniture is made with a certain kind of pride, the same pride that once made Americans confident here in the west of the world. And before the turn of the century, American made products were indeed, second to none. Today, there are those who say the days of quality and pride are gone. That American workers have learned to work and survive, but we're proving those people wrong at the Barewood Furniture Gallery. And we'll continue to make our world class furniture with pride of workmanship. Because people like you still have pride of ownership.

County computers upgraded

New $450,000
Madison County authorities now have access to thousands of court files without leaving the office, thanks to a new computer automation system.
Circuit Clerk Matt Melucci

John Rekowski said. "My office had been making 20 to 30 phone calls a day to the clerk's office in search of information. Now all we have to do is call it up on the computer."

Melucci's office has computerized all the county's court files, including civil, criminal and family. Traffic files are currently being installed. Officials still are trying to iron out a few wrinkles, but Melucci said he expects the system to be in full swing within weeks.

Probation Department Director Darrell McGibany said the system has allowed his office to devote more time to clients.

"When you" consider the number of cases we have and the time it took us to look up the information in the file, we were losing a lot of hours we could have spent with clients," he said.

State's Attorney William Haine said his office also is benefitting from the system.

Comanches race past Warriors

By Rob Raphael
Staff writer

The Cahokia Comanches are every bit as quick as advertised — no matter how far you go down on the depth chart. Cahokia spoiled the debut of Granite City head coach Nick Petrillo in a big way, as the Comanches routed the Warriors 46-7 Friday night at the Hagnauer Sports Complex in Granite City.

In all, seven different Comanches scored in the game, including second- and third-stringers. Also as good as publicized is Cahokia quarterback Byron Gettis, who looked like the best athlete on the field as he ran for one score and passed for two more. The Comanches (1-0) turned what was a close, competitive game into a rout by outscoring the Warriors (0-1) 32-0 in the second half. "I really felt we wore them down, not necessarily with our size, but with our quickness," said Cahokia coach Rob Eden. "I can go six deep in the backfield, even with our third and fourth teams. I thought in the first half (that) we stopped ourselves. I knew we'd make some mistakes, and I was hoping they'd make as many as us. They came out and took it right to us the first few times they had the ball. I think they have a lot of players playing both ways, and that hurts." For Nick Petrillo, it wasn't the way he wanted things to go in his first game as the Warriors' coach. "No, not exactly," Petrillo said. "We thought we had a chance to stay with them, and thought we'd be a little more ready to play than we were. We hoped they'd make some mistakes. We played hard and gave it a great effort, but in the second half their talent just took over. "Rob doesn't blow any smoke. They're as good as he said," Petrillo added. "We don't have that kind of game-breaker, and we can't hurt ourselves with penalties and mistakes. "Even in the first half we made some mistakes." (See WARRIORS, Page 3B)

Younger lineup returns to lead Lady Warriors

By Rob Raphael
Staff writer

It appears that the transition between volleyball coaches at Granite City High School is going very smoothly. Former coach Cindy Gagich, who moved to an administrative position, has left the program in good hands with first-year coach Amy Cole. And apparently, Cole is happy with the way Gagich's athletes are responding to her training methods.

"Things are going really well," Cole said. "These girls are willing to work hard, and that's the main thing I'm impressed with so far." The transition was made easier for Cole and the players because of the offseason work done by the team. "I worked with these girls all through the month of June when we had an open gym, so they knew what to expect when they came to practice," Cole said. "They didn't question anything I asked them to do. They obviously have a good background from working with Cindy Gagich. "If I was coming into a program which was basically lax, it would have been a lot tougher

Cole taking charge on GCHS court

By Rob Raphael
Staff writer

With the volleyball season opener set for Wednesday, the Lady Warriors don't have a lot of time to practice. In fact, while some teams go two or three times per day, GCHS is holding just one organized session each day now. The reason is because first-year coach Amy Cole teaches school in Belleville before commuting to Granite City for practice each day. Cole, who was a standout volleyball player at both the high school and college levels, has been a longtime resident of Belleville. So when she goes down the Southwestern Conference schedule, she picks out the scheduled matches against the two conference powers: Belleville East and Belleville West. So how do you beat two teams with statewide elite status? "Defense," she said. "You have to work very hard." (See COLE, Page 4B)

Melanie Gensert reaches to meet the ball. The Lady Warriors open the season Wednesday at Civic Memorial.

Lewis & Clark women aiming high

The 1996 men's and women's soccer programs at Lewis & Clark Community College have both received high rankings in the preseason polls. And with good reason. In 1995, the women's team went 13-4-2, was ranked as high as third in the nation, and finished the season ranked sixth. The team enters this season ranked 11th. Last year, the team played extremely well while being led in scoring by All-American Staci Dowdy of Granite City. Dowdy scored 14 goals and added 12 assists, totaling 40 points. This year, Dowdy will be the featured scorer, but supporting help should come from sophomore Amy Henson — also from Granite City — and freshman Bobbi Farmer of St. Jacob Triad. "With Henson back from an injury, our scoring should be up," coach Tim Rooney said. "Our team has a real good chance of being extremely solid, offensively as well as defensively." Anchoring a strong defense are sophomore backs Katie Dooley (Alton) and Lisa Forsting (Wood River), along with

Staci Dowdy of Granite City returns to lead the Lewis & Clark women's soccer team after totaling 14 goals and 12 assists as a freshman last season. can go wrong on defense," Rooney said. "If the defense does break, Rooney thinks many will be surprised by the play of freshman goalie Stacy Dennis (Francis Howell). "Every time I see Stacy in goal, I'm impressed with her quickness and hands," Rooney (See KICKERS, Page 3B)

Cahokia got on the board first after recovering a Granite City fumble on the Warriors' 11-yard line. Like lightning, Gettis dropped back and found Tony Wolf in the far corner of the end zone, and it was 6-0. Possibly the only negative for the Comanches was their kicking game. Cahokia missed four of its six extra-point attempts.

"I was not impressed with our kicking game," Eden said, smiling. "We have a lot to work on, but I'm happy."

The Warriors answered with a nice 11-play, 69-yard drive to take a 7-6 lead.

But the Comanches grabbed the lead right back with a drive of their own, keyed by a 58-yard scamper by Wolf on a flanker-reverse play.

After a scoreless second quarter, the Warriors appeared to be right in the thick of things, but Gettis finished off a 55-yard drive with a 20-yard run to his left — and three minutes later, he hit Laron Green on a screen pass, and Green did the rest, running 33 yards for a 27-7 lead.

GCSC tried to stay in the game mostly on the running of tailback Mike Posey, a transfer from Tennessee. Posey galloped for 68 yards in the first half, but was held to just six more in the second.

"I knew they had a couple good skill kids, and I read about the Posey kid," Eden said. "He's quick into the holes, but we got a couple shots on him in the second half and were able to slow him down. Basically in the second half, we just told the kids to fire off the ball a little more."

"Posey did look good. If he stays healthy, he's going to be a real good player for us," Petrillo said. "Our blocking broke down a few times, and he had to take a licking he shouldn't have had to take."

"We don't have a lot of depth. We're good at the skill positions, but we don't have depth there. We're going to surprise somebody, I really believe that."

Eden brought in the non-starters for the fourth quarter, but it didn't matter — the Comanches were still ultra-quick. James Foster, DeMond Witherspoon and Traeion Harris all scored on long runs to put the game away.

"Nick's got a good program here, and they'll be all right. It's a credit to them that they never quit in this game," Eden said. "This is the most speed I've had in 26 years of coaching."

"But we were able to play a lot of kids and got them some experience. I think we learned some things, and I think we'll get better each week."

background and Cole's leadership if they wish to repeat their successes of last year.

Although the team went into the postseason with barely a 500 record, the Lady Warriors advanced all the way to the sectional finals where they lost to Decatur Eisenhower in an invigorating three-game match.

Cole will be operating with a relatively inexperienced team, even though there are six seniors and three juniors on the varsity squad.

Because of deep, senior-laden teams over the past couple of years, many of the upperclassmen didn't see a lot of recent playing time. They'll be thrown into the spotlight this year, however.

The Lady Warriors do not have a lot of height, although they have at least two players near 6-foot tall. But they can make up for that with desire and the ability to pick things up quickly."

And, according to Cole, "The one thing we really lack is experience. But these girls can make up for that with desire and the ability to pick things up quickly."

The two girls with the most varsity experience, and the two who will anchor Granite City's front line, are senior Stephanie Brandt and junior Jemana Wright.

Senior Tonna Druhe and junior Laurie Bohnenstiel will do the setting, and they'll move to the front row and do their share of hitting.

Brandt will likely be an outside hitter, along with Melanie Ginsert, Amy Tapp and at times Lisa Cuvur. Wright, Kerry Lasiter and Cuvur will share the duties in the middle hitter spot.

"I'm really not looking for any middle hitters or setters," Cole said. "I have two or three of each, which makes for a good nucleus. It's good that I have depth at middle hitter, because you can teach girls to play outside hitter, but you have to have a natural middle hitter with some height."

Of course, all the girls will be working on their defensive skills for back-row duties.

The Lady Warriors open the season Wednesday at Civic Memorial, and Cole said it's always good to get off to a good start in any season.

"It's not going to determine what your whole season will be like, but we'd like to get out of the gate quickly," she said. "I'm really excited about this team, and we've been having a lot of fun."

said. In the midfield, sophomores Jamie Cavanaugh (McCluer North) and Kelley Williamson (Granite City) blend experience alongside freshman Christa Metzmaker (Alton), Tricia Tallo (McCluer North) and Katie Ellebracht (McCluer North).

Rooney's focus on fundamentals doesn't discount his strategic knowledge of the game. In 1995, the NCAA named Rooney Coach of the Year for the South-Central Region. Only three other coaches across the country received the same award for their respective regions.

The Trailblazers' first three games are on the road this year. They open play at home noon Sept. 7 against the Lindenwood College junior varsity squad.

This is just the fourth year for women's soccer at Lewis & Clark, located in Godfrey. Rooney's teams have made impressive strides in that time. The Trailblazers went 8-10 in 1993, 12-9 in 1994 and 18-4-2 last year.

ATTENTION HEARING AID OWNERS

Has your hearing aid lost its clarity and sharpness?
Does it sound weak or muffled? Does it work better at some times than at other times?

Are you using batteries faster than you used to?
Is your hearing instrument dead?

Introducing our new

AURACLEAN HEARING AID RENEWAL SYSTEM

Did you know that over 78% of all hearing aid repairs are caused by moisture and ear wax that has built up inside the hearing aid? Until now our only recourse was to send your instrument to the factory for an expensive repair or overhaul. Now, because of our new "AURACLEAN HEARING AID RENEWAL SYSTEM", we may be able to save you that expense. Many times we can restore your instrument to the same brilliance and clarity as when it was new. Ordinarily, this service would cost $29.95 but for a limited time, as an introductory offer, we can perform this service for no charge. (We will of the same time install a new "Wax Guard" if your instrument is compatible. A $10.00 value! This is a total of $39.95 value absolutely FREE!)

OUR GUARANTEE

We guarantee that you will hear a noticeable difference in your instrument.

That's right, this is a risk free service. You are under no obligation if you do not hear a difference for yourself.

Call 1-800-828-4494 today to schedule your appointment.

Remember there is no obligation.
